I would like to apply for admission to 大学、学部名。

My academic objective is to get 分野名 degree in 学部名 as part of my plan to pursue a Master's degree. My ultimate career goal is to work as an engineer in a company specializing in electronics and telecommunications.

なんでこの分野を勉強したいかとか

To achieve my goal, I need to gain broad-based knowledge and practical training in engineering. I have academic interest especially in the following courses: 特に興味があるクラス、コース名。

I understand that I must acquire some basic knowledge before starting this course, since this field of study is quite new to me. However, I have studied by myself and I will endeavor to prepare as much as possible by 入学時期。

I firmly believed that 大学名 offers the best potential for expanding my knowledge because it has a renowned reputation, as well as highly regarded professors and facilities. I'm sure that with my enthusiasm and diligence, I will successfully complete this course.
